Description

One of the winning designs of MoMA's 'Organic Design in Home Furnishings' competition held in 1941 in New York, the Alacrán Chaise is a timeless mid-century piece, offering two easily adjusted seating positions. Suitable for any setting, the Alacrán chaise is truly of two worlds. Webbed with custom-made strapping using Desserto organic, cactus leather - an innovative and sustainable alternative to traditional leather, which offers a cleaner and smoother edge and soft seat for our clients.
